August is Camp Meeting Month

The lyrics below are from a hymn that I grew hearing over the years. The name of the hymn is called Old Camp-Meeting Days written in 1934. I can remember as a young boy going with my Granny and Granddaddy to a lot of Summer Revivals, most of which were held outside under a tent with saw dust as the floor. There was a lot of good singing and preaching. As a tribute to good old fashioned singing, we will celebrate the entire month of August as Camp Meeting days.

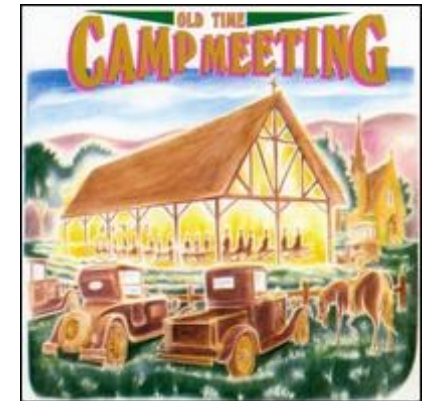

Camp Meetings have been going strong since the early 19th Century. It is a great time to celebrate. I will be leading us in some of the great old hymns of the faith as well as allowing you an opportunity to make your requests known during the services. I look forward to hearing your hymn favorites. Now here is the rule. If for some reason I don't know the hymn you have to come up and lead it. Just kidding! 😊

Verse 1 - Long ago when but a boy at old camp meeting time

How my heart did leap for joy to hear the old bells chime
 Callin' all the saints of God into the house of prayer
 Oh such prayin', singin', shoutin' for the Lord was there

Chorus: I like the old time preachin', prayin', singin', shoutin'

I like the old time readin' of God's words
I like to hear those old time, Hallelujahs, glory
I like the old time worship of the Lord

Verse 2 - Preachers in those good old days was filled with holy flame

Preachin' for the souls of men and not for worldly fame
 Under such old fashioned preachin', sinners fell to pray
 And the Lord would save 'em in the good old fashioned way

Verse 3 - In these latter days they say that there's no use to pray

All we need is to think religion 'tis a better way
 But I'm glad to tell you brother, Jesus saves from sin
 In the old time way He saves me now He dwells within

In His Grip,
 Bryan S. Hawkins
 Minister of Music and Children
