The Common People Heard Him Gladly
 Mark 12:13-44

In this passage, three groups try to outsmart Jesus:

The Herodians tried to distract Him with _____.

The Sadducees and Scribes tried to get him to argue about _____.

But another group heard him "gladly." They were the _____ people.

The common people were honest about their spiritual _____.

The seriousness of the common people's understanding was represented by the _____ who gave the two coins.
