Debra Perry & Jaidyn's Call
 IN CONCERT
 Date: Sunday, January 25, 2015
 Time: 11:00 AM

Debra Perry & Jaidyn's Call

Debra Perry and Jaidyn's Call was started in 2010 by Christopher and Debra (Perry) Reed. They named their group in honor of their disabled Grandson, Jaidyn, which has a condition called Hydranencephaly and was told if he survived birth, he would probably pass away within the first year. What a miracle the Lord has given and they're so thankful to let you know that Jaidyn just turned 8 years old on August 27, 2014. All praise goes to God! Jaidyn has no upper portion of his brain and is profoundly disabled. He can't walk, talk, crawl and is blind but has a laughter and smile that is so contagious and will light up any room. Jaidyn's Call ministry is to sing but to also share the testimony of their journey with little Jaidyn and their daughter Ashley.

Debra Perry and Jaidyn's Call were the 2012 Regional Artist Showcase winners out of over 250 groups and soloist at the National Quartet Convention, which is America's Largest Gospel Music Event. In 2012, they released their first radio single and now have had their first Singing News Top 80 song, called "The Waiting Room." Since then they also have had another Singing News Top 80 song called "Gone, Gone, Gone" Both songs have blessed and encouraged many people across the country. Be looking for their new single called "At the Bottom of the Hill" on the Gold Rush Music Radio Sampler 2014, Volume 2, Cut # 1. While not on the road, Chris and Debra Reed attend New Haven Church in Gainesville, Ga. Zach Smith attends Toccoa Assembly of God.

A love offering will be received and their music will be available for purchase after the concert.
