Brennan Aycock

Brennan plans on attending Enterprise State until he is medically cleared to join the Alabama Air National Guard. Once he returns from basic and his job training he will transfer to Troy to pursue a degree in Exercise Physiology.

Bryce Brasher

Bryce is a member of First Baptist Church and has participated in various youth camps through the years. He also participated in the youth community outreach programs and has helped with bible school. Bryce also worked with the recreation department helping with the children's sports programs. He has been a scorekeeper for both the basketball and baseball programs, and served as an assistant coach for a t-ball team. Bryce played football, basketball, and baseball through the recreation department programs and throughout school, until deciding to focus on baseball last year. Bryce is a member of the Beta Club and will graduate with an advanced diploma. He is also a member of the G-club, Pep Club, SAFE, and FBLA. After graduation, Bryce will be attending Troy University and plans to major in Marketing.

Nathan Jones

Nathan is an Eagle Scout, has been an active member of the band playing saxophone, and a member of Beta Club his entire high school career. He will be attending UAB with a full tuition scholarship to study Genetics and Genomics Sciences.

Kade McLaney

After graduation Kade McLaney will become a Troy Trojan football player and major in Education, in hopes of becoming a high school coach.

Ethan Walker

Ethan will attend lineman school at Wallace Community College in the fall.
