

First Baptist Church Geneva

May 6, 2018

Bailey McCollum

During Bailey's High School Career, she worked, cheered, participated in various clubs, and excelled in her academics. She served as the Alabama Anchor Club State Secretary, as the GHS Anchor Club President, President-Elect and Director, and is the Senior Class Vice-President. Other clubs she was a member of were FBLA, BETA Club, Pep Club, Panthers for Christ, G-Club, and Spanish Club. Bailey also had the opportunity to represent GHS and be a part of several leadership programs, such as Alabama Girls State, Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Program, and the local Warren Beck Youth Leadership Program. Bailey finished up her High School career attending ESCC full-time through early enrollment. She will attend Auburn University in the Fall as an Animal Science/ Pre-vet major.

Avery Nance

After graduation Avery plans to attend Troy University on a full academic scholarship. She will graduate 4th in her Senior Class with a 99.5 average K-12. Avery did this while playing basketball, volleyball, softball and cheerleading. She started in Varsity sports for 5 years and excelled in each. As a Junior Avery was awarded the Warren Beck Leadership Award. She is a member of the National Beta Club and numerous other clubs. She represented the town of Geneva as Miss Geneva for 2017. She plans to pursue a Pharmacy degree or become a Physical Therapist which are the top two interests on her list.

Madison Layne Stephens

Madison is senior class president and is graduating 8th in her class. She was a varsity volleyball player and is involved with HOSA, G-Tech, Pep Club, FBLA, SAFE, Beta Club, FCCLA, G-Club, Panthers for Christ, and FFA where she was on the Nursery and Landscaping team and placed 1st at County competition. Madison is an active member in the youth where she is on the Student Leadership Team. Madison is attending Auburn University in the fall where she plans to obtain her degree in Agricultural Science.

Auston Walden

Auston comes from generations of farmers on both sides of his family. He plans to continue that legacy and pursue his dream of becoming a farmer. He is a member of Beta Club, FBLA, SAFE, was the President of FFA, and is an Honors Graduate. Auston plans to attend ESCC and Alabama Aviation Center to obtain degrees in A&P Technology and Avionics.

With his unwavering faith in God and strong belief in hard work, honesty, loyalty, dedication, and family values, he will set out to accomplish these goals and fulfill his dreams.

Graduate Not Pictured: Jackson Justice

Geneva High School

Baccalaureate

Wednesday, May 16

6:30 PM

First Baptist Church Geneva

Senior Awards Day

Thursday, May 17

9:00 AM

Geneva High School

Graduation

Saturday, May 19

8:00 AM

Robert Fowler Park

Above all, you must live as citizens of heaven, conducting yourselves in a manner worthy of the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come and see you again or only hear about you, I will know that you are standing together with one spirit and one purpose, fighting together for the faith, which is the Good News.

Philippians 1:27 NLT

First Baptist Church Geneva

309 South Commerce Street

P.O. Box 579

Geneva, AL 36340

Church Office (334) 684-9910

Fax (334) 684-8530

Website: www.fbcgeneva.org

Email: fbc@fbcgeneva.org